

the japanese house and its life
as my master

In this Alumni Lecture, Barbara Lydia Ruech shares her journey through rural Japan, where since 2023 she has lived and worked alongside Japanese craftsmen and architects to restore traditional houses in abandoned mountain villages. Rooted in a life of intentional simplicity, her time has been shaped by unexpected encounters and meaningful collaborations.

Photographer - Architect - Storyteller

05.30 pm

Barbara
Lydia Ruech

18.09