BIO:

STOP STOP is a three-piece band formed originally in 2009 in Barcelona, who went on the most Rock & Roll adventure you could think of. Founded by Jacob A.M. on bass and lead vocals, followed by Danny Spasov on drums and vocals, and recently added to the line-up, Richie Lopez, on guitar and vocals.

Not long after the release of their debut album "Unlimited" in 2011 and frustrated with the Spanish music scene, STOP STOP packed a van brought with savings they had, then headed for the shores of the U.K. to ply their trade and create their own story:

“-We left everything behind in Barcelona, bought a van with all our savings and dreams, put all our equipment in it and moved to the UK not looking back nor giving a damn about anything but rock and roll. We started playing in the streets where we got some money for food.

No showers for weeks, we slept in that tiny little goddamn cold van and hardly had the chance to communicate with our families but we carried on, we were living the adventure of our lives. Soon after that, we made good friends all over the land that helped us so much and shared everything they had. We spent months sleeping on everybody’s floors around the country, got fed and well looked after by our new and incredible fans-”.

With ample amounts of blood, sweat and tears, giving up was never an option. STOP STOP continued to push forward receiving exceptional response and praise. Playing up and down the country, the band were soon able to afford a house to rent and call home.

STOP STOP have released 6 studio albums throughout their career. In 2019 single “The Last Call” from the band’s 4th album “Get Selfied” made it onto the turntables of National Radio Stations ‘Planet Rock’/‘Kerrang’/‘BBC Radio, fact that changed everything and brought STOP STOP finally to the big stages everywhere.

The new guitarist Riche Lopez has arrived just in time to join the band on their tour for their most recent album “Tangled”, released in December 2023, the tour will consist of 80 dates around the U.K. and Europe in 2024.

BAND IMPRESSIONS:

" - StOp,sToP! is a trio that did the 1st 2 weeks support for the recent SOTO tour, they were completely unknown by everyone in the crowd and had them eating out of the palm of their hands by the end. Very fun, very entertaining, very energetic and balls to wall, frenetic and unapologetic! - "

Jeff Scott Soto (Yngwie Malmsteen, Talisman, Sons Of Apollo)

" - Hailing from Barcelona this 3 piece rock band will transport you back to the good times when the metal was glam, the hair was big and guys wore make - up and didn't give a two shit monkeys what anyone thought coz they rocked like muthafuc*ers and that's exactly what these guys do - "

Uber Rock

" - Playing a blistering set of riffs, thundering guitars and soaring vocals StOp,sToP! aren't afraid to put on a show! - "

Metal Hammer

" - Stop Stop have to be one of the hardest working touring bands right now, these guys eat, sleep and breathe rock n' roll. Their sound is reminiscent of the glory days of 80's rock but yet they still manage to sound unique and modern. Kick-ass rock for the 21st Century! - "

Classic Rock Magazine

" - Brilliant showmanship and talented musicians. The crowd were on form as well so many fans singing to every word which is amazing to see for an originals band. What an incredible band and party atmosphere! - "

El JazzBla se ajusta más a las condiciones del época grinta rockera, en el que la música vive cuerpo a cuerpo, sudando al calor de una torrida tarde en un horario poco habitual pero muy efectivo (19 horas). En ese ambiente, los StOp, sTOp! pasaron al día del público de los cuatro discos publicados hasta la fecha, con especial atención al que acaba de publicar, 'Get set, go'.

Una colección de canciones que no era preciso conocer para disfrutarlas al cien por cien, ya que en un estado puro que a la larga, de entre los más buenos, se puede cerrar el arrollador desembarco de la banda en la Isla. Sobre todo, el público y en menor medida, el que, en modo muy divertido, viene con el 'Showtime' en la mano de la banda con el 'So lonely' de The Police o 'Solo voy a ir' de Bob Marley montan se movilizan entre el público (instrumento en mano) para abarcar la barra. Subidos a ella, y con unos chupitos de por medio, se movilizan a despegar un espectáculo que tiene que continuar de nuevo en el escenario.

Allí atacaron una energía verborrágica del 'Showtime' de la Creedence salpicada por momentos con el 'Showtime' de la AC/DC. Suelo como en una de rock duro al público, la fiesta tuvo que alargarse hasta un poco más. En el final por algo el arrollador como los StOp, sTOp!

На Арената днес: StOp, sToP! Новата Света Троица на Глем Рок-а!

Колкото повече души се разделят по време на концерт, толкова по-добре е концертът. Това е философията на българските рок групи. И именно така е с новата Света Троица на Глем Рок-а! StOp, sToP! са група, която не се интересува от жанрове, а от музиката. Те са едни от най-добрите български рок групи и това е доказателство за това. В момента те са в България и ще дадат концерт на Арената днес. Това е отлична възможност да ги видиш на живо. Не пропусни този шанс!

Una band energica, che suda sul palco e si fa il mazzo fino a quando non vi vede tutti saltare e cantare sotto il palco con il solo scopo di farvi divertire... Ecco questi sono gli StOp,sToP e questo è quello che troverete ai loro concerti. Ragazzi spagnoli che hanno viaggiato per il mondo con un unico obiettivo : suonare il rock (quello vero).

O divertido trio europeu de hard rock/sleaze glam StOp, sToP! segue divulgado o quinto álbum de sua carreira, loWcoSt lIfE, que foi lançado no dia 1º de maio de 2021. E depois de Big Vaccine e Raised on Rock & Roll, dessa vez Jacob A.M. (vocal e baixo), Vega Vega (guitarra e backing vocal) e Danny Spasov (bateria) escolheram a música Turned My Life Around como seu novo videoclipe.

"Queríamos descrever da maneira mais engraçada o que acontece quando você se apaixona, tudo pode dar errado no mundo e contra todas as probabilidades você ainda está feliz e se sentindo no paraíso, não importa o que aconteça, e mesmo que a garota brinque com você, como se você fosse o brinquedinho dela, você se sente bem".

Jacob também nos contou sobre os bastidores do videoclipe:

"Nós curtimos muito, essa filmagem foi muito divertida, tivemos que rolar pelo lugar como se um terremoto estivesse acontecendo", recordou.

De momento, mais novidades foram anunciadas em relação ao próximo álbum do grupo, que será lançado em 2022.

Formation atypique, STOP STOP l'est surtout par ses membres: en effet, ce trio comprend dans ses rangs un chanteur bassiste anglais, un guitariste espagnol et un batteur bulgare. Musicalement, par contre, STOP STOP est un groupe oeuvrant dans un Hard Rock/Glam de facture classique. Après 3 albums sortis entre 2010 et 2016, ce trio a pris son temps pour mettre sur pied son 4ème opus studio.

Heilige Scheiße, was ist das denn für eine geile Platte? Klingt ein wenig so, als hätte der Frontman von Wednesday 13 zusammen mit Skid-Roxe-Gitarren Dave Sabo und Mötley Crüe's Tommy Lee die Party seines Lebens im Studio gefeiert und das Ergebnis aufgezeichnet. In Wahrheit ist natürlich keiner der genannten Herren an Bord: Hinter STOP STOP! verbirgt sich ein internationales Trio aus (den Bandfotos zufolge) nicht mehr ganz jungen, dafür aber gänzlich unbekannteren Musikern. Der Qualität tut das freilich keinen Abbruch, denn die Burschen rocken, reifen, grooven und treten Ärsche, als würden sie zu den ganz Großen gehören. Neben obigen Referenzen kommen einem beim Anhören unweigerlich noch Namen wie Cinderella („Lost In The U.K.“, „Coming Home“) und Bon Jovi („My Friend“) in den Sinn. Wer den richtigen Soundtrack sucht, um am nächsten Wochenende mit zwei Kästen Bier im Anschlag die nächste Party zu zerlegen: Hier ist er.

FRAGMENTS OF MUSIC OF TIDES

StOp, sToP!

Made in Barcelona, but resident in Birmingham since 2011, StOp, sToP! describe themselves as "an energy-fuelled metal'n'roll band".
 New album Get Selfied is an infectious tangle of bubblegum riffs and cocky attitude. Their August/September tour will be a riot.

Emerging Rock Bands

It's not quite a Spanish invasion, but when three musicians move from Barcelona to Birmingham, you know they mean business! Juliet Hurwitt finds out more.

Jacob explains the decision to give up their jobs, pack everything they own into a van, and head to the centre of the UK. "Although the music scene in Spain is good, there isn't enough support for new bands. It's six hours from Barcelona to Madrid, and it's difficult to get promoters to promote you when you're not local. We were spending time and money (van hire, fuel, food), to get to a gig for only twenty people!" Although other bands do make this work in Spain, the process wasn't quick enough for the ambitious trio, so the smaller and more manageable UK was an obvious destination. Apparently, gigs in Spain don't start until 10.30/11.00pm so people will only go out to watch bands they know, whereas in the UK people will go to pubs and local venues to discover new bands. This insight worked for StOp,sToP and their few weeks in the UK expanded to twelve years. Now they are continually touring, have 15,000 followers on Facebook and are about to release a sixth album! In common with most bands, this is the result of a lot of hard work.

up close and personal before their signature tune and carefully rehearsed all fall down at the end. I'd deffo see them again!

Warm-up duly done, the thought occurred that bands don't go out anymore (as they once did) to blow each other off stage. It's now more about camaraderie and support rather than competition, but Stop Stop left Jeff Scott Soto and his merry men some big boots to fill. It was obvious that the crowd was there for Soto. A slow influx from the bar an

No question about whether I like StOp,sTop! though. I absolutely love them! They play a happy blend of good-time party rock and they play it well. They are one of the few bands at this level that I know of who do this full-time, no day jobs for these boys. They play and rehearse and record and the result is a polished gem of a performance, where the chaos is very carefully choreographed and the professionalism is stunning. The set tonight included quite a few new songs from their most recent album 'Low Cost Life' and I note that the songwriting (in terms of both structure and sound) continues to improve. The songs are simple but effective and get the StOp,sTop! ethos of "let's party" over nicely. Of course, old favourites are still thrown in the mix too, because after all everyone needs to go to a 'Toilet Party' occasionally! The final song of the set is the self-titled 'Stop Stop' and features a bridge that segues into 'Knockin On Heaven's Door' whilst the band – still playing and singing – go for a bit of a stroll about the place. Yes, even the drummer! This draws a fantastic response and as they return to the stage and all fall over on the final note I have a smile on my face as big as bassist and singer Jaco joker-esque facepaint. Party on, StOp,sTop!

MMH Radio

Stop Stop are a 3-piece band, originally from Barcelona. After becoming frustrated by the Spanish music scene, they pooled all of their resources together and bought themselves a van. After filling the van with all of their equipment, they came over to the UK. To begin with they had to sleep in the van, then made some friends and slept on their sofas/floors. After becoming a hit on the UK tour scene, they then managed to rent a flat. Their dedication proved fruitful, and many festivals in the UK and Europe soon began to book them.

The audience were hooked from the first track to the last. Stop Stop kept the crowd engaged during the entire set. I thought they were a perfect addition to the Friday Night Party. For me, there seemed to be a bit of a Kiss influence for their make-up and performance, and a bit of AC/DC with some of the dance moves. During the set, the drummer Danny, had a solo performance, and even took a small drum out with himself into the audience. This went down extremely well.

The band were fun from the first note to the end note. Their performance is a perfect mix of visual and audio entertainment.

CD: "Get Selfied" by Stop, Stop!

Having been a massive Stop, Stop! Fan for the last 3 years, this new album was something I was highly anticipating and also rather sceptical about. I wasn't entirely sure what to expect looking at the cover and new logo design, the fact they have also changed their image quite drastically made me a little worried that they weren't going to be the same band I fell so in love with. I was wrong.

This album was reminding me of their previous album Barcelonaingham to begin with, but not complaining, lol love to see the band write some more tunes like the ones on Lowcost. However, after a few tracks, this new sound pushes itself forward which is something I was not expecting from the band and I love it – I am so happy that they have gone in this direction. I promise I'm not biased, they just keep getting better and better.

"Renegade" is a classic Stop, Stop! Style song. Riffy, driven and unique sounding – everything the band has brought through their last 3 albums. Very rare follow on from the Barcelonaingham album, giving me lots of Barcelonaingham vibes!

"The Last Call" is another classic unique song – there's a twist at the end which makes you think a different song is playing which is pretty burly and different. I'm not sure I would have chosen it as a single, but in true Stop, Stop! Fashion the official video is very random and bizarre. Although after listening to this track a few times, I can see where they were going with this now.
