BANQUET BROCHURE

Your Banquet Event in the Beautiful Bergstube

Welcome to the Bergstube. It only just opened on October 1, 2025, but it feels as if it has always been here. We have created this place with a lot of love and dedication to give it a soul right from the start. We want our guests to feel at home in the Bergstube – and to experience a motivated culture of hospitality that leaves a lasting, positive impression. The Bergstube is not an off-the-peg Chalet, nor is it just another temporary pop-up mountain hut, but a location with authentic character. Just like the people who work there.

When you organize a banquet here, you bring your guests to a place that has genuine nostalgia. A place where your guests feel comfortable and want to linger because its charm and tranquility make it feel like home.

We will do everything we can to make your stay with us a wonderful experience that will remain a positive memory for a long time to come.

That is our promise. And that is our claim. Welcome to the Bergstube – a place that feels like home.
